YOGA TEACHER TRAINING INTENSIVE

250 Hour Program
OCTOBER 2011 - MAY 2012

Instructors: Maureen Rae, RN, E-RYT
Tony Murdock, MA
Christine Ling, RYT

Course Specifics:

This course meets and exceeds the requirements for Registration with Yoga Alliance. Upon completion of all components of the course, the applicant may apply to Yoga Alliance for Registration as a Registered Yoga Teacher (RYT)

Each fall, we offer our Yoga Alliance approved 250 Hour Teacher Training Intensive. The Main Module of this course takes place on 10 Sunday afternoons from September to February, plus home assignments, classes observations and written reports. The curriculum focuses on how Yoga works, the history and philosophical groundings of Yoga, and an exploration of the fundamental poses of Yoga. The style of yoga is Iyengar-based, Hatha Vinyasa Flow Yoga - a dynamic system that marries mind, asana and breath. You will also learn how to instruct and set up classes, the purpose of each asana, verbal cueing, and some hands-on corrections.

Yoga Teacher Training Eligibility

While we recommend a home practice of at least one year, anyone sincerely interested in Yoga is most welcome to enroll in the course in order to expand his or her own practice and knowledge with or without the desire for yoga certification. Our school recognizes its responsibility for maintaining its excellent reputation for high standards. Teaching certificate is awarded on the basis of successful comprehension and mastery of the principles and practice of Yoga as indicated by written assignments, in-class discussion and demonstration of precise alignment and technique. The ability to communicate information about asanas to others is paramount. Those students who apply themselves should find no difficulty in achieving success.

A personal interview along with a practical evaluation is required. We also ask that you participate in at least one class at our studio - with either Maureen or Christine, as part of the application for the program.

THE INSTRUCTORS

Maureen Rae, RN, E - RYT, has gained recognition across Canada for her unique, centered approach to Yoga and to wellness, having been passionately involved in the industry for the last 25 years. Maureen began practicing Yoga at the age of 13 as a high school student and since then Yoga has become a way of life, spilling over into every aspect of being.

She has been teaching Yoga for 15 years in the technically precise Hatha Vinyasa Flow Style, although her classes are punctuated with postures and techniques from both the Ashtanga and Viniyoga traditions of Yoga. She has studied extensively with Erich Schiffmann in Santa Barbara, California and Angela Farmer in Greece, (among others). She is the owner and program director of Toronto-based Maureen Rae's Yoga Studio, a centre for the study of yoga both for students, and for aspiring teachers. She travels widely to train yoga teachers throughout Canada.

Maureen holds a White Belt in Nia Dance and has developed her own unique approach to DanceYoga - integrating a wide variety of modalities - t'ai chi, yoga, tae kwondo, ethnic rhythmns, pilates, modern and classical dance and more.

A highly-regarded CanFitPro presenter, Maureen uses asana, pranayama (yogic breathing techniques), deep relaxation, and discussion to lead her students into stillness.

Becoming still enables one to more intuitively be "guided from within".

Christine Ling, RYT is a graduate of Maureen's 250 hour program. She first practiced yoga in the 70's and found her way back to the practice when she left a stressful career in finance and budgeting to raise her son in 1997. Recognizing the many positive benefits of yoga in her own life Christine believes that yoga is truly a gift worth sharing and has been teaching since 2002.

She embodies the idea that yoga is for everyone. New Moms find a measure of calm in Christine's Mom and Babes yoga classes, while school children are introduced to the joys of yoga. Her background in a corporate setting has proven invaluable now that she is leading classes in the workplace and helping to relieve stressful work environments.

Christine is a senior instructor at Maureen Rae's Yoga Studio teaching classes of all levels. She has recently written articles entitled, "I just want to do that stretchy thing - What is Yoga?", and "Yoga for Stress" published in Active Living Magazine.
